DAY4

Bali

Lempuyang Temple, Lahangan Sweet, Tirta Ganga

Breakfast - Hotel style

Guide meeting

Lempuyang Temple - Bali's representative temple, known as Heaven's Gate

Bali's iconic Lempuyang Temple, which means 'Bright and Holy Light of God', is the oldest temple in Bali.

It is also known as the "Gate of Heaven" and has about 1,700 steps.

Behind the majestic temple, the view of Mt. Agung and the sky creates a fantastic spectacle. Professional photographers are available at all times (additional costs apply)

Lunch - Local food

Lahangan Sweet

A tourist destination full of irreplaceable Bali spots, mirror shots, and various photo spots. It is an eastern tourist spot where you can take various life shots with the view of Agungsan as well as mirror shots. You can take a jeep ride up to see the nature of Mt. Agung and Bali, and take photos at the photo spots located throughout the area.

Tirta Ganga - The Tirta River, called the Garden of Water

Tirta Gangga, which means 'sacred water of the Ganges', is believed by Hindus to wash away sins and karma by bathing in its waters.

With a water theme, this beautiful garden was built in 1948 by the Karangassam royal family and was used as a water park for the kings.

Today, it is also known as the Water Garden, which is maintained in the form of a beautiful water-themed garden, and you can cross it across the pond via a stepping stone path.

Dinner - BBQ Rib

DAY5

Bali

Ubud Market, Lotus Temple and Starbucks, Tegenungan Waterfall, Massage

Guide meeting

After checking out of your hotel, meet up with your guide and drive to Ubud, the village of artists. (Approx. 2 hours by private car)

Ubud Market - The largest wet market in Ubud

It is the largest wet market in Ubud and is a place where you can find local specialties and various handmade items that are mostly sought after by tourists. Paintings, wooden dolls, aromas, miscellaneous goods, clothing, fruits, souvenirs, and more can be purchased at reasonable prices, but you must bargain. If you go at dawn, you can also see the local market, so you can not only buy goods, but also get a glimpse into the life of the local Balinese.

Lunch - Local meal

Lotus Temple and Starbucks - Saraswati Temple & Ubud's Unique Starbucks

Considered one of the top 10 unique Starbucks in the world, Ubud Starbucks has a unique atmosphere with an interior with a traditional Balinese atmosphere.

Just behind you is the Saraswati Lotus Temple, where you can enjoy a cup of coffee while gazing at the stunning views.

Tegenungan Waterfall

It is one of the waterfalls that is not located in the mountainous area, halfway between Ubud and Denpasar. The amount and clarity of the waterfall water depends on the amount of rainfall, but there are bushes with clear water and you can see waterfalls of different heights along the steps.

Dinner - Jimbaran Seafood

Traditional Shiatsu Massage (2h)

This is a full-body massage experience that will relieve the fatigue accumulated during the trip. Basically, it is only for adults, and accompanying children can receive the same massage experience if requested by their parents, and children who do not receive the massage experience can stay in the massage room with their parents. - Massage tip excluded
