DAY2

Dazaifu, Yufu, Kurokawa

Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine, Umegae Mochi, Yufuin Hot Spring Village, Kinrin Lake, Enjoy Yufuin to the fullest, Kurokawa Hot Spring Village

Breakfast – Hotel style

Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine - Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine, dedicated to the god of learning and culture Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine is a shrine dedicated to the famous poet, scholar, and philosopher Sugawara no Michizane (845-903), who is considered the god of learning. The current main shrine is designated as an Important Cultural Property. The plum blossoms here are famous for blooming before those in other regions every year, and the road leading into Dazaifu is famous for a rice cake called "Umegae Mochi." It is said that eating this rice cake will ward off illness, clear your mind, and help you pass exams.

Umegae Mochi - Plum cake made with glutinous rice

The approach to Dazaifu Tenmangu, dedicated to Sugawara no Michizane, the god of learning, is lined with shops. Here, you can find Dazaifu's famous "umegae mochi." Umegae mochi, with its plum blossom-shaped design, literally means "plum cake," filled with red bean paste and made with glutinous rice dough, boasts a chewy texture.

Lunch - Japanese delicacy 'Tobanyaki'

Toban-yaki is a Japanese fusion cuisine featuring teppanyaki as its main dish. ※ The image above is an example for illustrative purposes only and may differ from the actual dish.

※ The meal or dining location may change depending on local circumstances.

Yufuin Hot Springs Village

- A popular hot spring town in Kyushu, a tourist destination loved by people of all ages.

Yufuin hot spring Village, located in central Oita Prefecture, is a small town with a population of approximately 30,000. Since the 1970s, it has maintained its rural hot spring atmosphere, and as its hot springs gained popularity, it has developed into a tourist attraction. Here, you can admire the beautiful scenery of Lake Kinrin and browse the charming shops. With its quaint souvenir shops, restaurants, and cafes, it's a popular destination for women, making it a representative Kyushu destination.

Located in Yufuin, Lake Kinrin is named for the golden scales of the carp that swim and leap from the water's surface, gleaming in the setting sun. The lake is particularly famous for its misty morning landscape, where both cold and hot spring waters bubble up from the lakebed.

Kurokawa Hot Spring Village

- A resort hot spring village with a variety of open-air hot springs and hot spring inns.

Located in the heart of northern Kyushu, Kurokawa is a resort hot spring town packed with a variety of open-air baths and hot spring inns. Nestled deep in the mountains, it offers a tranquil and serene atmosphere, reminiscent of scenes from Japanese films and dramas, making it a popular destination for tourists. Why not take a leisurely stroll through this tranquil hot spring town and enjoy some healing time?

DAY3

Fukuoka, Daegu

Ooyama, Fukuoka Tower, Momochi Beach

Breakfast - Hotel style

Ooyama - A plum wine factory created in collaboration with Nikka Whisky, operated by Ooyama Yume Kobo. Made in the best environment surrounded by plum groves, we make plum wine and plum products that maximize the fruitiness of the plums. We only use plums grown in Oyama, each one carefully grown by local farmers. Oyama's plum wine, made by hand-picking plums by local farmers on the same day and then fermenting them for long periods of time, has received high praise both in Japan and abroad, including winning the gold medal at the "Japan National Plum Wine Competition" for two consecutive years and the gold medal at the "World Liquor Contest." Our signature plum wine is "Honkaku Plum Wine," made 100% from high-quality, fresh Oyama plums.

※ Replace with other casting factories during holidays

Fukuoka Tower - Fukuoka Tower, a symbol representing Fukuoka

Fukuoka Tower, a 234-meter-tall equilateral triangular tower located on the seaside Momochi Beach, is a symbol of Fukuoka. It was built in 1988 to commemorate the 100th anniversary of Fukuoka City. Fukuoka Tower symbolizes Fukuoka's new beginnings as a sailing ship, and symbolizes a wish for safe sailing. It is also called "Mirror Sail" because it is made of approximately 8,000 semi-transparent mirrors. There are two observation decks located at 116 and 123 meters, and the high-speed elevator, which ascends 123 meters from the ground floor in approximately 70 seconds, is a must-see feature of Fukuoka Tower.

※ Includes admission to Fukuoka Tower

Momochi Beach - A beautiful beach park both day and night

This small, man-made beach is a popular destination for families and couples alike. It's renowned for its beautiful scenery both day and night, and its overall tranquil atmosphere is impressive. Nearby, Fukuoka Tower and Marizon are also worth a visit.

Lunch - Japanese-style set meal

This traditional Japanese table setting preserves the natural flavors of the ingredients. While somewhat simpler than a set meal, it offers a refined and clean presentation and flavors unique to Japan. This refined, home-style meal, featuring rice, side dishes made with seasonal ingredients, and soup, offers a glimpse into Japanese culinary culture.
