Umikaji Terrace - Okinawa's Santorini with shining white buildings and blue sea

Umikaji Terrace, located on Senagajima Island near Naha, is a dazzling white building that is called Okinawa's Santorini, and offers a view of the blue ocean. It is a complex space where you can enjoy shopping and eating Okinawa's famous snacks, so you can enjoy your free time.

Masahiro Foundry - Okinawa specialty Awamori shochu manufacturing plant

This is a factory that produces Awamori Shochu, one of Okinawa's specialties. Awamori Shochu is a drink with over 40 percent alcohol content, but it is popular for its clean taste. At the Mashiro Brewery, you can tour the history and manufacturing process of Awamori Shochu, and you can see various types of Awamori Shochu. They also offer visitors the opportunity to taste Awamori Shochu.

Naha International Street - This is Okinawa's main street, a shopping street that is always crowded with tourists.

This is Okinawa's main street, a shopping street always crowded with tourists. The name "International Street" comes from the movie theater "Annevale International Theater" in the center. It was the first street in Okinawa Prefecture to recover after Japan's defeat in World War II, and it was also nicknamed "Miracle Mile" because the street is about 1 mile long. If you enter the narrow alleys of International Street, you can vividly observe the daily lives of Okinawan locals.

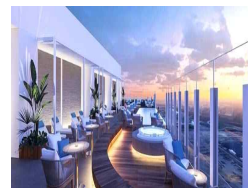

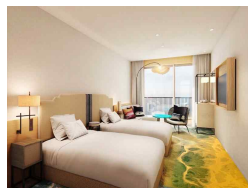

Dinner - free meal within Naha International Street

DAY2

Okinawa

Churaumi Aquarium, Okichan Dolphin Show, Emerald Beach, Nago Pineapple Park, Manzamo, Chatan American Village, Sunset Beach

Breakfast – Hotel style

Churaumi Aquarium - Invitation to the Okinawa Sea, Churaumi Aquarium

Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium consists of four floors, and each floor has a different theme. In the large-scale aquarium, you can see schools of whale sharks, manta rays, yellowfin tuna, and bonito swimming leisurely, and on the last floor, in the Aqua Room where you feel as if you are completely underwater, you can watch manta rays and fish dancing gracefully.

Okinawa Dolphin Show

This is a dolphin show held in an outdoor facility next to the Churaumi Aquarium, a famous tourist attraction in Okinawa. Several dolphins nicknamed "Oki-chan" perform a show to exciting music under the direction of their trainers, and the show lasts for about 10 minutes at a set time.

Emerald Beach

This is an artificial beach near the Ocean Expo Memorial National Park in the northern part of Okinawa's main island. It began to gain fame in 1998 when it was selected as one of the "55 Best Beaches in Japan" by the Japan Environment Agency, and its true value was confirmed in 2001 when it was selected again as one of the "88 Best Beaches in Japan." As the name suggests, it is an incredibly beautiful photo spot with a sparkling contrast of emerald sea and white sand.

Lunch - Okashigoten Tobanyaki + Okinawa Soba Set(Okinawa's representative local cuisine)

At Okashigoten Nagoten Udon "Udon", you can enjoy Okinawa's representative local cuisines, Okinawa soba and tobyaki. Most Japanese soba dishes use buckwheat noodles, but Okinawa is unique in that it uses noodles made from wheat flour, and the broth is made from pork bones, bonito flakes, kelp, etc., and the wheat flour noodles, pork, fish cake, and pickled ginger are added, creating a refreshing broth. Tobanyaki is also a fusion dish using local Japanese ingredients, and is popular with many tourists. It is a dish where you cook meat yourself in a small pot using a personal brazier, and it is reminiscent of Korean-style seasoned bulgogi. It is a set meal where you can enjoy various vegetables and side dishes along with meat.

Nago pineapple Park - A theme park where you can smell the sweet scent of pineapple

At Nago Pineapple Park (那護パイン園, Nago Pineapple-en), you can ride a pineapple cart and tour various pineapple producing regions around the world while listening to an informative announcement about the growing process. Since long ago, the northern part of Okinawa has had the best conditions for growing pineapples due to its acidic red soil, and has grown many delicious pineapples. In addition, in the Tropical Garden, a greenhouse, you can see the growing process of about 1,000 species of tropical plants, including the refreshingly flowering Ananas and the tall Hegorim and Ansurimu. In addition, about 10,000 species of rare shellfish from 32 countries around the world, centered around shellfish collected from Nago Bay in northern Okinawa, are on display, making the viewing even more fun. You can also purchase wine, chocolate, candy, and other products made with pineapple, a specialty product.

Manzamo - A huge plain, Manzamo (万座毛, Manzamo)

The origin of Manzamo is that when King Shokei of the Ryukyu Kingdom, the ancient kingdom of Okinawa, visited this place, he exclaimed, "This is a place big enough for ten thousand people to sit down," and so it was called Manzamo. Since it faces the ocean, you can enjoy the spectacular view created by the organic coral reefs, and the protruding grass plateau of Nago Bay is a strangely eroded Ryukyu limestone cliff shaped like an elephant, and a wide lawn spread on top of it. The view from here is considered one of the best in Okinawa.

Chatan American Village - American Village where you can feel the atmosphere of the West Coast of the United States

American Village, built on the central coast of Okinawa, is a place where a U.S. military airfield was originally located, and was returned in 1981 to be developed into a park. It is a place where you can feel the atmosphere of the U.S. West Coast. It is adjacent to beaches such as Sunset Beach and Araha Beach, and has various cute shops, arcades, restaurants, cafes, and bowling alleys, making it a popular place for young people and tourists in particular.

Sunset Beach - Okinawa's best sunset, Sunset Beach

This is an artificial beach located at the western end of American Village in the Mihama area in central Okinawa. As the name Sunset Beach suggests, it is the best place to see the beautiful sunset in Okinawa. It also has moderate water depth, soft white sand, and convenient facilities, making it a popular place for families. It is close to the tourist attraction American Village, and there are places to enjoy the beach until the evening, making it a place where you can fully enjoy the atmosphere of Okinawa.

Dinner – A famous restaurant famous for its steak set menu with salad and soup

This is a famous restaurant in Okinawa that offers a variety of steak menus, including authentic American-style steaks, T-bone steaks, and Ishigaki beef and Kibimaru pork steaks that you can only find in Okinawa. Also, if you visit during lunch time, you can eat a set menu that includes soup, salad, and rice (or bread), so it is known as a restaurant with good value for money. There is also a Korean menu, so ordering is easy! Enjoy a meal at Steak House 88, which offers a menu that everyone traveling to Okinawa can enjoy, including not only steaks, but also taco rice, pizza, hamburgers, lobster, wagyu sushi, and kids' menus, and do some shopping nearby.
